

'NEW POSTOFFICE TO START SOON

The U. S. Pays Winchester Cooley $60,000 for Site of $350,000 Building.

Winchester Cooley, president of the Rio Grande Valley Bank & Trust company, received two checks Wednesday from the United States treasury department aggregating $60,000, which is the final step in the closing of the sale for the property at Stanton and Mills street, upon which will be erected during the current year a $350,000 postoffice building.

Four Years Work. The payment of the $60,000 by the government marks the close of four years' investigation of, and perfecting of the title to the property. When the bill was originally presented to congress for a new postoffice building for El Paso, the appropriation committee named $250,000 for the building and $50,000 for the site. The $50,000 was inadequate to secure a desirable location. A committee of prominent business men decided upon the purchase of the property at Mills and Stanton street, agreeing to raise the difference between the government appropriation and the value of the property, by subscription.

Committee Raises Surplus. The property price was set by appraisers, after considerable negotiations, at $125,000, and the difference between that amount and the $50,000 was raised by a committee upon which the following men served: Richard F. Burges, Charles N. Bassett, Winchester Cooley, Charles A. Newman, J. E. Morgan, J. P. O'Connor, John Sorenson and others.

Both the city council and the county commissioners, in order to hasten the completion of the deal, agreed to withdraw all taxes for the year 1915, a nominal sum being received in each case by way of adjustment.

Taxes Remitted. The committee had the site in charge did not secure enough from the rentals of the property to pay the $60,000 mortgage on the property, caused by the government's delay in paying the sum appropriated and for this reason the city and county taxes accrued.

Mr. Cooley says that now that the property has been accepted by the government, El Paso may expect to see the building begun within the current year, and the ground will be appropriated by congress for that purpose. The site is 120 feet frontage on Mills street and 110 feet on Stanton street.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out of sorts, half-sick, listless, eating and acting naturally—look! Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, cough, sore throat, full of colic, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated, undigested food and acids will be moved out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mother can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company.—Advertisement.

SKOVGAARD IS A HIT AT PHOENIX

Violinist and His Metropolitan Company Greeted With Big House.

A telegram received this morning by A. G. Alexander, the conductor of the school orchestra, from William Conrad Mills, of Phoenix, Ariz., reads: "Skovgaard and New York Metropolitan company played and sang their way into the hearts of Phoenix. Had packed house, wonderful enthusiasm."

"These artists will appear in joint concert with the high school symphony orchestra at the Texas Grand theater on Friday night."

"Anything that may be said in favor of the great violinist and the New York Metropolitan company would really be inadequate," Mr. Alexander says, "so far as the excellence of this company is concerned."

"There are very few tickets left and I am afraid we shall have to turn people away for lack of room, but if one can secure even standing room on that night he ought to consider himself fortunate."

"The high school orchestra had a very successful rehearsal last night and I am certain that the performance will surpass anything of the kind that has been given in El Paso for years."

HANS HANSON AND COMPANY AT THE TEXAS GRAND THEATRE

Hans Hanson, assisted by a rattling good orchestra, a tramp comedian, a Swedish dialect, a three-pounder and many college students, gave the Swedish method comedy drama to a good crowd at the Texas Grand theater Tuesday night.

The play is a melodrama of the old fashioned "Si Plunkers" type. Nelson Loranger plays the part of a Swedish hero who learns English and love from an American widow with a little girl. The tramp comedian kept the crowd composed largely of visiting cattlemen—laughing every time he came on the stage and even little "Baby" Loraine could not stop the demand for more of his fun.

The cannon sets in the side yard of a home near Salt Lake. The program fails to say why Salt Lake folk happen to have cannons that are loaded setting around their yards. But the cannon plays its part for Hans grabs the "che-le" from her go-cart just as the old three-pounder is fired by the villain, pointing in a glare of red fire, he wins the little one's mother and sends his joy to the world.

The orchestra plays some bang-up good music between acts and Baby Loraine also sells her photographs between acts through the auditorium.

HAWAIIAN SINGERS COMING HERE FOR AN ENGAGEMENT

Belle noted Hawaiian singers are to be at the Texas Grand theater for music and merriment. This company is en route from the San Francisco exposition. This company of Hawaiians are considered to be one of the best touring America. They sing in their own native voice and also sing many of the late American songs that has become so popular in the United States, will be in the repertoire of these singers.

Manager McClintock says the engagement is going to prove one of the real treats of the season and those who heard the company at the exposition agree with him.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

MARGARITA FISCHER. The story of how a young woman, whose mind has been filled by her father with tales of the fascinations used by the dragon of city life to ensnare his victims, and the surprising way in which she not only outwits the dragon, but brings destruction to those whose actions had evoked the idea in her father's mind. It is a striking theme. It is worked out in a wonderful manner in "The Dragon," the next release of the Equitable program, which is coming to the Alhambra Theater today.

Miss Margarita Fischer, the star of the production, is eminently fitted for the part of the youthful and unspoiled heroine, who in her travels in search of the dragon, all unwittingly brings disaster to those whose actions had evoked the idea in her father's mind. That she overcomes the evils and escapes the perils that environ her is to be expected, but the manner in which this consummation is brought about will prove a delightful surprise.—Adv.

ANOTHER GOOD BILL, AS USUAL. The Vitaphone company's star feature at the Elbow today. Tomorrow, Tyrone Power, America's most distinguished actor, will be seen in a soul stirring feature. Saturday, a Paramount-bray animated cartoon will be shown and one every Saturday thereafter. They are great. Send the kids.

Sunday a special program will be given by request. "The Esterbrook Case" featuring Julia Swayne Gordon and L. Rogers Lottin. It is an exceptionally fine picture. "Jeanne Dore" featuring "Sarah Bernhardt" is coming.—Advertisement.

WIGWAM—THEA BABA. Thea BABA, the magnificent, in Bartley Campbell's celebrated drama of "The Valley Slave," is the feature today and tomorrow at the Wigwam theater. She is cast as an artist model, a role that gives her unlimited opportunities for the display of her wonderful genius and fascinating charm.

The story throbs with action, fire and emotion and completely enraptures one with its daring originality and trenchant power and skill. The support cast includes popular Stuart Holmes, dainty Claire Whitney and Little Jane Lake, the gifted child actress. "The Black Crook" is coming.—Adv.

CONCERTS CONTINUED. Owing to the fact that the El Paso Piano company had to turn away hundreds of people on account of limited seating capacity, manager W. H. Schubert has secured Mr. Klingman for two more concerts to demonstrate the wonderful $10,250 pipe Organ Orchestra this afternoon only, from 2:30 to 4 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. It will be absolutely free.

Over 2500 people attended these concerts the past six days. The El Paso Piano company is located at 208 (south side) Texas street.—Advertisement.

EACH bright, warm day the thoughts turn to the new Spring apparel—every day the collections become more complete—there is ready now the first of the correct styles for Spring.

Spring Suits For $15.00 To Establish Another Supremacy In Style and Economy

WE have established a remarkable standard for suits at $15.00—having them made up in better-than-usual fabrics—more carefully tailored—and keeping the collections constantly freshened with new styles.

Now, ahead of the real opening of the Spring season and just as a great many women are ready for new Spring apparel we have secured a collection of suits which were intended to be sold at $19.50—garments which makers of fine apparel put out as their initial offerings for Spring.

Many of the styles are quite military in their theme—modified by charming lines of individuality and smartness—the stiffness of the martial air made delightfully feminine—there are many styles, serges, gabardines and poplins in blues, green, greys and other fashionable Spring colorings—and plenty of checks.

Spring Fashions In Blouses, $2.95, $3.95, $4.95

EXCLUSIVE "Popular" models of Georgette Crepe, Chiffon, Crepe de Chine, "Will o' the Wisp" Silk, Radium Taffeta, French Batiste, Voiles, Marquisettes, Nets and Laces.

The collar, sleeve and vestee are the important features. The deep V-shaped vestee extends down the entire front of some of the new blouses. In reality, this lace vestee is also the foundation of the entire garment made of crepe Georgette, chiffon, etc.

Sleeves are steadily growing larger. Many are in the new bell and puff styles. The simple standing, flaring and standing turn-over collars lead. Then there are new deep cape collars, and double flat round collars.

The blouses of lingerie fabrics are ornamented with hand embroidery, and many hand run tucks. They are also trimmed with narrow flat, Vals and novelty laces. A feature of many of the new blouses is that the collars may be worn either high or low. See them here tomorrow on the Third Floor.

Lovely New Dresses of Silk for Spring, $15

THE result of our best efforts to secure something out of the ordinary. Two separate manufacturers have contributed to this event. Shall we give you comparative values? No, the garments proclaim their values too readily. If we were to ask you to name the prices at which these dresses would be sold, you yourself would put the figures from one-third to one-half higher. When you consider it in advance of the new season, that they are all new, new Spring styles and the price is such an insignificant one—($15.00)—who could help but be enthusiastic?

The assortment includes short dresses of fancy striped taffeta, trimmed with Georgette; taffeta dresses, beautifully embroidered, and made in the tunic effect, and plain colored taffetas and Georgette combinations. Colors are navy, Copenhagen, green, black, tan, pearl, ecru, old rose, black and white and blue and white stripes. Choose any of them. at
